[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, July 21, 1763. [No. 950.]

NEW-LONDON, June 24.

A Conference with the Deputies of the Six-Nations of Indians, in the Council-Chamber, at Hartford, in the Colony of Connecticut, on the 28th Day of May last.

PRESENT, the Governor, Council and Assembly of the said Colony.

Tyorrole, Mohawk, Sasquayenquaraghta, Tyoniscantha, Deputies from the Six Nations
Onondagas,
Cayugas.
Odquawsons, Interpreter, sent by Sir William Johnson, Agent of Indian Affairs.
William Printup,

THE Deputies after being taken by the Hand, and bid welcome into the Government, seated themselves; then Saquayenquaraghta arose and delivered a Speech, which, from the Interpreter, was taken as followeth, viz.

BROTHERS, We were sent hither by the Chiefs of all the Six Nations, and it has pleased God that we arrived safe at this Place, to see you. Brothers, We are Deputies from all the Chiefs, and we understand that you are not Sound within, and we give this to clear your Eyes that you may see, and open your Ears that you may hear, and cleanse your Hearts that you may entertain cordially what we shall speak to you. A Belt of Wampum from the Deputy of the Onondagas.

Returned the Compliment to them, that they would open their Eyes, and cleanse their Throats, that they might speak freely.

BROTHERS, We have no Writing of it, but we have a Tradition, that God, the Maker of all Things hath given to the Six Nations our large Country to dwell and subsist in, and made them a strong People, and our Nations have of old appointed a Fire-Place at Onondago, by that Means united together, and so became a strong and powerful Confederacy; afterwards they saw, at Albany, a White People, and found Means to enter into a Conference with them, and made a Silver Chain, a strong Chain of Friendship, which they and we have from Time to Time brightened and kept clean, and at this first Interview liked you so well, that we gave you Room for you to Settle upon our Land, and you are since become very Numerous and Prosperous, for which we are very glad and rejoice: And Brothers, we have been very helpful, and assisted one another against our Enemies, and by the Help of God, we have gained Superiority over them: And Brothers, you will excuse us; we have no Records of former Proceedings, but hint at such Things as were done formerly by our Forefathers, and have nothing further to offer on this Head.

Now we are come to another Head.

BROTHERS, We have heard grievous News this Winter, that you were about to come with Three Hundred Families to Settle on our Lands, which was very astonishing to us, and that you designed to build Forts and strong Places on our Lands, and for that Reason our Sachems considered upon it and have sent us down to this Place; by that Means we are come down, here to acquaint you with what News we hear, that you have got a design to Settle on the Susquehannah River, and claim the Land to the West-Seas; and we have heretofore given away Land to the white People, but of this Sale of this Land the Six Nations know Nothing that they have ever given it away or sold it to any; and what little we have left we intend to keep ourselves; we know not of any such Sale; and if any such Thing hath been, it must have been done in a separate Manner and not in a general Meeting or Council of the Six Nations, as hath been the usual Manner of their giving or selling their Lands.

BROTHERS, Our Custom is not to keep any Thing Secret, we have heard that one Lydius, at Albany, has endeavoured to purchase some Lands at Susquehannah, and it is not the Manner of the Six Nations to keep any Thing in the Reserve, he was to among the Nations to obtain it; but we have heard that he has since got a Deed from the Indians, which he obtained from them singly, or one by one, and that from Strangers and such as we know nothing of. We have often sold Lands to the white People, but then it was done by the consent of the whole, in some general Meeting, and this is Land which we have reserved for ourselves, as we have but little left, and we are surprised at such a Measure being taken to obtain a Deed without our Knowledge or Consent.

We have been told that Lydius has reported that he paid a great deal of Money for this Land which we know nothing of; and this is the hunting Ground which we depend upon for our Support, and are not willing by any Means to part with it. [Then the Speaker presents a Small Belt which he holds in his Hand.] Brothers, we would have you take this Matter into serious Consideration; we here present you with the Emblem of the Six Castles belonging to our Nations, and through it the Road or Path through which we come to strengthen our Covenant Chain. Brothers, seriously take it into Consideration, and think how you would like it to have Lands taken from you in an unfair and injurious Manner. You are a praying People, better enquainted with Books and Learning than we, and must needs know better what is Right; so have good Lands as we once did, taken from you, surely you could not like it to be treated in such a Manner, to have your Lands taken from you that you depend upon for your Support. Brothers, Take it seriously into Consideration, how strong and Union used to be formerly, when we were, as it were united under one Head, and were as one Body and Hearts, and heartily united in our Affections. Brothers, As I have told you before, that we have been loyal to our Brethren the English, and have been at great Charge and Trouble in the late Expedition, and have been at this Belt to shew the Minds of the Confederate Nations, that you do not encroach on our Lands which we have reserved and design to keep for our Children to the latest Posterity, and will not part with; they are such as we let by and will not Sell. Brothers, If you proceed to encroach on our Lands we shall not be easy, but will return home to our Places, and apply ourselves to the King our Father to obtain Justice, and I myself will go, and on my going out of the House will return home and leave you to consider on it. And now I have said all I have to say.

The Governor directed the Interpreter to tell them, that he was able to give them a satisfactory Answer, and desired they would stay till the Beginning of the Week, at which Time they should have an Answer.

To which they answered, that their Chiefs directed them to make no Delay, but as soon as they had made their Speech they were to return; but the Governor desired they would stay for an Answer; then they withdrew.

At the Council-Chamber, in Hartford, May 30, 1763. Present as above.

The Governor made Answer to the foregoing Speech in the Words following, viz.

BRETHREN,

WE heartily welcome you to this Place, and are glad to see you safe arrived, and that you are sent by your Chiefs to brighten the Covenant Chain made by our Forefathers: You tell us your Chiefs think we are not all Sound within, and give a Belt to clear our Eyes to see, open our Ears to hear, and make our Hearts clean, that we may cordially receive what you speak to us.

BRETHREN, We are sorry your Chiefs think we are not Sound within, we assure you our Eyes are clear, our Ears are open, and we cordially receive you as Friends, and kindly receive your Message. Brethren, we rejoice with you that God has prospered the Great King GEORGE, our common Father, so that your and our Enemies are subdued, and now we hope we shall live in Peace and Friendship as long as the Sun and Moon shall endure.

We come now to your Message.

BRETHREN, You tell us the News you have heard, that we were about to come with 300 Families to Settle on the Susquehannah River, which was very astonishing to you, and that we design to build Forts on your Lands.

BRETHREN, We assure and tell you, this Government, has not given any Orders for any such Settlement; we are no Ways concerned in that Matter, only as Friends to you have endeavoured to prevent the People from going to Settle those Lands. We have indeed been told, that a Number of particular Persons, some living in Connecticut, some in Massachusetts, some in New-York, and some in other Governments, were about to Settle on those Lands, but we advised them not to proceed in their Attempts, and lately I received Orders from the King our common Father, commanding me to use my Authority and Influence to prevent the People from attempting to settle on those Lands till the Matter should be laid before the King: In Obedience to his Majesty's Commands, I acquainted the Chief Men among them with the King's Orders, and advised them to lay aside the Prosecution of the Settlement for the present; and furthermore, I have now the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that I am well informed those People have had a Meeting, and have in Testimony so well of his Majesty's Care, as their ready Submission to and Acquiescence in his Orders, unanimously agreed, that no Person whatever, of their Company, shall enter upon, or make any Settlement on any of those Lands until his Majesty, our common Father's Pleasure be known in that Matter.

BRETHREN, Seeing we as your Friends, and agreeable to the King's Orders, have taken so much Care to prevent those Settlements which are so grievous to you, and have now given you Accounts that the Attempt are stopt, we think you will be fully Satisfied, and inform our Brothers, your Chiefs, and your Nations of this, and rest easy and quiet. We assure you of our cordial Friendship, and wish you a safe Journey Home, and desire you to present our kind Compliments to the Sachems of the Six-Nations. Farewel.

To which the Deputies of the Six-Nations replied as follows, viz.

BRETHREN.

WE have heard with Attention what you have said, and are well pleased with the same, and we hope you will endeavour to prevent any more People from making Purchases of us; and as to those Lands we talked about, we do not at present design to part with them, but if ever we do, it shall be to those Purchasers of your People before any do, if they desire it. We are to receive no Presents on this Occasion, but as to your Offer to discharge our Expences while in this Town, we gratefully accept and acknowledge the same, and heartily bid you Farewel.

LONDON, May 6.

BY some English Letters which carried over the Comet Frigate to Brest, and which was bought on the French King's Account, we learn, that they have about 20 Sail of the Line in that Harbour, besides Frigates. There is not much Work going on in the King's Yard as yet.

Letters from Paris of the first of May advise, that by their last Accounts from the Port of Brest, the Ship Tonant was soon to sail for Toulon; and that on the 29th past, M. Monsiere sailed from Brest for the West-Indies, with the four following Ships of the Line, viz. the Royal Louis of 112 Guns, the Monarque of 74, and the Acquis, the Mutineer of 64, and the Rose following Frigates, viz. Hardi, Hirondelle, Aimable, Fortune, and Fidele More.

On Tuesday last Mr. Wilkes, being removed on a Habeas Corpus to the Court of Common-Pleas, Westminster-Hall, to answer to the Charge against him, spoke to the Court as follows.

The Speech of JOHN WILKES, Esq; now a Prisoner in the Tower, on Account of High Treason, when brought up to the Court of Common-Pleas, Tuesday, May 3, 1763, before the Right Hon. Sir Charles Pratt, Lord Chief Justice, and the Rest of the Judges of the Court.

MY LORD,

I AM happy to appear before your Lordship and this Court, where LIBERTY is so sure of finding Protection and Support; and where the LAW, the Principal and End of which is the Preservation of LIBERTY, is so perfectly understood.

LIBERTY, my Lord, has been the governing Principle of every Action of my Life; and, actuated by it, I have always endeavoured to serve my gracious Sovereign, and his Family, knowing his Government to be founded on it. But as it has been his Misfortune to have employed Ministers, who have endeavoured to cast the Odium and Contempt, arising from their own tyrannous and corrupt Measures, on the sacred Person of their Sovereign and Benefactor; so mine has been the daring Task, to rescue the Royal Person from ill-placed Imputations, and fix them on the Ministers, who alone ought to bear the Blame, nay, the Punishment, due to their unconstitutional Proceedings.

For this Proof of my Zeal, and Affection to my Sovereign, I have been imprisoned, sent to the Tower, and treated with a Rigour YET unpractised, even on SCOTCH Rebels.

But however these Ministers may now strive to deliver me; whatever Persecutions they are now meditating against me; yet to the World I shall proclaim, that Offers of the most advantageous and lucrative Kind have been made to seduce me to their Party, and no Means left untried to win me to their Connection: Now, as their Attempts to corrupt me have failed, they aim at intimidating me by Prosecution; but as it hath pleased God to give me Virtue to resist their Bribes, so I doubt not but he will give me Spirit to surmount their Threats, in a Manner becoming an ENGLISHMAN; who would suffer the severest Trials, rather than associate themselves with Men who are Enemies to the LIBERTY of this Country. Their Bribes I rejected; their Menaces I defy; and I think this the most fortunate Moment of my Life, when I appear before your Lordship, and this Court, where Innocence is sure of Protection, and LIBERTY can never want her Friends and Guardians.

Friday, May 6. This Morning John Wilkes, Esq; lately committed close Prisoner to the Tower of London, by a Warrant of Commitment from the Secretaries of State, was brought up to the Bar of the Court of Common-Pleas, where (as soon as the Court was seated) he made the following Speech.

MY LORD,

FAR be it from me to regret that I have passed so many more Days in Captivity, as it will have afforded me an Opportunity of doing, upon mature Reflection, and repeated Examination, the more signal Justice to my COUNTRY. The LIBERTY of all Peers and Gentlemen, and what touches me more sensibly, that of all the middling and inferior Classes of People who stand most in Need of Protection, I put my Case this Day to be finally decided upon! A Question of such Importance as to determine at once whether English Liberty be a Reality or a Shadow. Your own free-born Hearts will feel with Indignation and Compassion all that Load of Oppression under which I have so long laboured. CLOSE IMPRISONMENT, the Effect of premeditated Malice, all Access for more than two Days denied to me; my House ransacked and plundered; my most private and secret Concerns divulged; every vile and malignant Insinuation even of High Treason itself, no less industriously than falsely circulated by my cruel and implacable Enemies, together with all the various Insolence of Office, form but a Part of my unexampled Ill Treatment. Such inhuman Principles of State-Chemistry Tyranny will, I trust, by THIS COURT, upon this solemn Occasion, be finally extirpated, and henceforth every innocent Man, however poor and unsupported, may hope to sleep in Peace and Security in his own House, unviolated by King's Messengers, and the arbitrary Mandates of an overbearing SECRETARY OF STATE.

I will no longer delay YOUR JUSTICE. The Nation is impatient to hear, nor can he safe or happy, till that is obtained. If the same Persecution be after all to carry me before another Court, I hope I shall find that the genuine Spirit of MAGNA CHARTA, that glorious Inheritance, that distinguishing Characteristic of ENGLISHMEN, is so religiously revered THERE, as I know it is HERE, by the great Personages, before whom I have now the Happiness to stand; and that I shall find (as in the ever-memorable Case of the imprisoned Bishops) an independant Jury of free-born ENGLISHMEN, who will perfist to determine my Fate as in Conscience bound, upon constitutional Principles, by a Verdict of Guilty or Not Guilty. I ask no more at the Hands of my COUNTRYMEN.

After which the Court proceeded to give their Opinion; and Mr. Wilkes was ordered to be discharged. He then addressed himself to the Court in the Words following.

MY LORDS,

GREAT as my Joy must naturally be at the Decision which THIS COURT, with a FROM ANCIENT MAGNA CHARTA, has been pleased to make, concerning the premeditated Seizure of my Person, and all the other consequential Grievances, allow me to assure YOU that I feel it for this Cause chiefly as my own Account, than I do for THE PUBLIC. The Sufferings of an Individual are a trifling Object, when compared with the WHOLE, and I should think myself culpable in Comparison with Considerations of a Nature so important and truly Important.

"I will not trouble you with my poor Thanks. Thanks are due to You from the whole English Nation, and from ALL the Subjects of the English Crown. They will be paid You, together with every Teſtimony of Zeal and Affection to * THE LEARNED SERJEANT, who has ſo ABLY and ſo CONSTITUTIONALLY pleaded my Cauſe, and in mine (with Pleaſure I ſay it) THE CAUSE OF LIBERTY. Every Teſtimony of my Gratitude is juſtly due to YOU, and I take Leave of THIS COURT with a Veneration and Reſpect, which no Time can obliterate, nor tax the moſt grateful Heart inſufficiently expreſs."

* Serjeant GLYNN.

A Copy having been taken of the following Letter, which was ſent OPEN to the Earl of Halifax, to be forwarded to Paris, we take the Liberty of preſenting it to our Readers.

MY DEAREST POLLY, Tower, Sunday, May 3.

I HAVE got Half an Hour's Leiſure to pay my Compliments to you, and to relieve you from the Anxiety you will, from the kind Affection you bear me, be in at hearing of my Commitment to this Place. Be aſſured that I have done nothing unworthy of a Man of Honour, who has the Happineſs of being your Father. You ſhall never in future Life bluſh for me. I am only accuſed of Writing the laſt North-Briton, yet my Sword has been taken from me, all my Papers have been ſtolen by Ruffians, and I have been forcibly brought here. I have not yet ſeen my Accuſers, nor have I heard who they are. My Friends are refuſed Admittance to me. Lord Temple, and my Brother, could not be allowed to ſee me Yeſterday. As an Engliſhman, I muſt lament that my Liberty is thus wickedly taken away, yet I am not unhappy, for my Honour is clear, my Health good, and my Spirit unſhaken, I believe indeed, invincible. The moſt pleaſing Thoughts I have are of you; and the moſt agreeable News I can hear, will be the Continuance of your Health.

I beg you not to write a Word of Politics.

A propos, my dear Girl, can you get me made Membre du Parliament de Paris, for ours has loſt all their Privileges? Yours has a few left.—My beſt Compliments to Madame —, I hope to kiſs her Hand by the End of June, and that we ſhall all make our Tour together, and laugh at all the Follies and Roguries of this Country.—Continue to love me, and believe me, with the greateſt Warmth of Affection,

Your obliged Father, JUNIO WILKES.

Though Mr. Wilkes be diſcharged, on Account of his being a Member of Parliament, from his Impriſonment in the Tower; yet he is not freed from the Accuſation againſt him. The Point before the Court of Common-Pleas, was not the Proof of his Guilt, but, the Nature of his Offence, and whether it deprived him of his Privileges as a Member of Parliament, which extend to all Caſes, except Treaſon, Felony, and Breach of the Peace. The Warrant of the Commitment accuſes him not of High Treaſon, but of Writing and Publiſhing a Libel. But a Libel in the Senſe of the Law, is only a high Miſdemeanor (though in arbitrary Reigns it has been held to be more) and at moſt has a Tendency to diſturb the Peace.

Mr. Wilkes, however, had been ſcarcely diſcharged, when a Gentleman of Eminence in the Law ſtood up, and told my Lord Chief Juſtice, that he had juſt received a Note from the Attorney and Solicitor-General, to intreat his Lordſhip would not give Mr. Wilkes Leave to depart till their coming, which would be inſtant, as they had ſomething to offer againſt his Plea of Privilege. But this Motion was laughed at by the whole Court, as the Queſtion was decided, and Mr. Wilkes already diſcharged.

We are informed that Mr. Wilkes's Franks have been Charged, in Violation of the Privilege of Parliament.

May 7. Yeſterday Morning, at Four o'Clock, a terrible Fire broke out at the Houſe of the Right Honourable Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager Molleſworth, in Little Brook-ſtreet, Groſvenor-ſquare, which burnt furiouſly for ſome Time, and at length entirely conſumed the ſame. Lady Molleſworth, and two of her Daughters, who lay in the ſame Room with her, were unhappily burnt to Death; and another of her Ladyſhip's Daughters jumped out of a Window, and broke her Thigh, which, we are informed, was obliged to be cut off Yeſterday. The Governeſs to the young Ladies was likewiſe burnt, and one of the Maid Servants jumped out of a two Pair of Stairs Window, but pitching on the Spikes of the Iron Rails, was immediately killed. A Footman alſo threw himſelf out of the Window, and fell into the Area, and was carried to the Hoſpital, where he ſoon after died. Other of the Servants are ſaid to be miſſing.—It is reported the Fire broke out in Captain Molleſworth's Apartment, occaſioned by burning a Candle all Night in the Room. The Captain was ſaved by getting over a Wall by help of a Ladder. It was near Half an Hour before any Engines came, as the Watchmen were gone off their Stands, and the ſecond Floor and Garrets were in Flames before any Engines began to play. One unhappy Circumſtance is ſaid to have attended, that her Ladyſhip had the Key of the Houſe Door conſtantly brought to her every Night; and when the Fire was firſt diſcovered by ſome of the Servants, they went to her Ladyſhip's Room, which was in Flames, and conſequently could not get the Key, which thirſly aggravated the unhappy Circumſtances before recited.

BRIDGE-TOWN, (in BARBADOS) June 2.

Laſt Monday Afternoon three Frenchmen, under Pretence of going on board a Veſſel that was to ſail that Evening, prevailed on two Negroes to take them off; but as ſoon as they got over the Bar, one of them diſplaced the Boy at the Helm, and bore away to Leeward: On this, one of the Negroes jumped over-board, ſwam on Shore, and ſoon alarmed the Wharff: They were immediately purſued, and by the Vigilance of a white Man in a Speight's-Town Boat, belonging to Mr. Ford, were brought back, and are now under Confinement in our Goal. They were fired at as they paſſed the Fort, but proceeded with an undaunted Reſolution till they were overtaken.

CHARLES-TOWN, (in South-Carolina) June 14.

From Fort Prince-George, Keehowee, we are informed of the Great Warrior's Return to the Nation, with ſome Priſoners, ſome Ammunition, and ſome Brandy: That the Northern Indians have been troubleſome to the Cherokees, about the Upper-Towns, Valley, and Middle Settlements, and have killed and ſcalped Eight of them, two of which were Sons of Anakoſkulla; whereupon he was gone out with a Party of 60 Men to take Satisfaction; and, that being convinced no Trade would be ſent from hence to the Over-hills, he intends, upon his Return, to make Application to Governor Fauquier for a Trade from Virginia: And that about 30 Creeks have lately been at Toogoulou, laying in Wait for ſome Auguſta Traders to the Over-hills, from one of whom (John Walker) they took four Kegs of Rum, and ſome other Things, as he was going up; and from another that was returning, his Horſes and Leather; the laſt they gave a pretty ſevere Correction to. The Reaſon they give for this Conduct is, that thoſe Traders ſteal whole Droves of Horſes from them.

Extract of a Letter from the Havanna, May 13.

"The King's Ships and Prizes are all fitted out and ready for the Sea.—The Count de Aranga is appointed Governor of Cuba, and was to ſail from Cadiz the beginning of April.—Admiral Kepple, hourly expected from Jamaica, it is ſaid, will proceed for England, and not wait for the Garriſon, the Deſtination whereof is not known here. A few Days ago one of the Murderers of Meſſ. Boyd and Read of Philadelphia, was tried by a Court-Martial, and ſentenced to be hanged, his Head cut off, and put on the moſt conſpicuous Place, viz. the Land Port Gate, and his Body caſt into the Sea, without Benefit of Clergy, which Sentence was approved of by the General, and put in Execution two Days afterwards.—Quarter-maſter Fraſer, formerly a Serjeant of the Royal, and the firſt Man that entered the Moro at the Storm, was likewiſe hanged ſome Days ago, for killing a Soldier whom he ſuſpected of being too free with his Wife."

ANNAPOLIS, July 21.

We have the Pleaſure of acquainting our Readers, That Col. Croſop, and his Family, were not cut off by the Indians a few Days ago; but if he has not ſpeedy Relief, it is feared he will be ſoon. By a Letter from thence (the Old Town, which is about 25 Miles on this Side Fort-Cumberland) we are informed, That on the 13th Inſtant Six Men who were at work in the Wheat Field, were fired on by Five Indians, who killed one of the Six, but on being fired at by one of the White Men, and ſeeing others coming to engage them, retired without ſcalping him. That on the 14th five Indians crept up to, and fired on, about 16 White Men, who were about a Hundred Yards from the Colonel's Houſe, and wounded one Man; but on the White Men's returning their Fire, the Indians fled, ſome of them being wounded, as the Blood they loſt ſhewed, and were purſued about a Mile. That on the 15th, as Mr. Samuel Stansbury Winder was going to his Houſe, which is about 300 Yards from the Colonel's, with four Men and ſeveral Women, ſome Indians ruſhed on them from a Riſing Ground; when the People ſaw them, they ran towards the Colonel's, hallowing, whereupon 16 or 18 Men who were there, went to meet the Indians, and firing on them, killed one, who was left, and wounded others, as appeared by the Blood which fell from them as they ran off; but Mr. Winder was killed by a Shot from the Indians. When the Indians ran off on the 14th, they left three Bundles behind them; and when they fled on the 15th, they left three of their Guns, a Piſtol, and other Things, and, by ſome particular Mark on one of the Guns, it is known, that theſe Indians were ſome of the Party that paſſed by the Old Town in the Spring, when they told Col. Croſop they were going to make War on the Cherokees.

Laſt Wedneſday Capt. Peter Butler, of Frederick-Town, Maryland, called out his Company of Militia, and in a few Hours they raiſed 200 Men, with Money to Pay them, to Range on the other Side Connocheque, from Fort-Frederick to the Temporary Line, to preſerve the diſtreſſed Inhabitants in gathering in their Harveſt.

Another Company of Rangers, conſiſting of 40, were likewiſe raiſed in another Part of that County, for the ſame Purpoſe. The Gentlemen themſelves have ſhewn a noble Spirit.

In a Letter from a Gentleman in Virginia, dated the 18th, he writes, "I have been at Lord Fairfax's Houſe I ſaw you, and only returned this Day; while I was there, we were alarmed every Day with Accounts of the Indians being in that Neighbourhood, which occaſioned many of the Inhabitants to leave their Plantations, and retire with what Effects they could carry, into the moſt convenient Forts. The Militia of the Five Frontier Counties have been drafted and ſent up into Frederick and Hampſhire, and many Gentlemen have gone out Volunteers."

Since our laſt, a good many of the Tobacco Ships have arrived from London, of different Parts of the Province.

With Capt. Love, came in Paſſenger, the Hon. DANIEL DULANY, Eſq; Recorder of this City, and Secretary of the Province, who arrived ſafe at his Houſe in Town on Monday laſt.

EDMUND KEY, Eſq; Barriſter at Law, came in with Capt. Ridgely, and Landed below, near his Father's.

On Monday laſt, towards Evening, Mr. Edward Brown, of Kent-Iſland, was found Dead on the Road near his Houſe, with his Skull Fractured. He parted with one of his Neighbours a few Minutes before, in Diſcourſe about Horſes, and whether his Horſe ſhould kick, or he not eaſily in a Ring, he being a very Corpulent Man, caught the Bridle; [illegible] was a Man well eſteemed in his Neighbourhood, and has left a ſorrowful Family.
